3. The depot was guarded by about 35 men of the Mtz Rifle Bns of the 17th Gds Mecz Regt, who were on duty every second day, alternating garrison training with guard duty. The men were on duty two hours and were off four. The depot had nine guard posts and a wooden look-out tower four m. in height at each corner of the area. No searchlights or dogs were employed in enhancing the security of the area.
